

be thankful for what you have you'll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don't have, you'll never have enough.

as we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.

let us remember that as much as we have been given, much will be expected from us, and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds!

now what we say about our blessings, but how we use them, is the true measure of our thanksgiving.

"If a fellow isn't thankful for what he's got, he isn't likely to be thankful for what he's going to get."
~Frank a. Clark

"gratitude is a quality similar to electricity: it must be produced and discharged and used up in order to exist at all."
~William Faulkner

"when I started counting my blessings, my whole life turned around."
~Willie Nelson

"forever on thanksgiving day the heart will find the pathway home." ~Willbur d. nesbit

~William Jennings Bryan
"on thanksgiving day we acknowledge our dependence."

~e.p. Powell

"thanksgiving day is a jewel to set in the hearts of honest men; but be careful that you do not take the day, and leave out the jewel."

~Sam Leikowitz
"when asked if my cup is half-full or half-empty my only response is that I am thankful I have a cup."

~Charles Dickens
"some
"reflect upon your present blessings, of which every man has plenty; not on your past misfortunes, of which all men have some"
